

Dutch Student Arry Willemsen Needs Bike for Transportation

By ADALINE CORTEZ
DA 4-6876

Arry Willemsen, American Field Service student from Holland, is getting along fine here, except for one thing—he needs a bicycle.

There are only a few restrictions on foreign students in the United States, and one of them is that they cannot drive cars, due to the complications insurance-wise. Although Arry has a driver's license, he has to wait for his "foster" parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, to take him around.

If he had a bicycle, Arry feels, he could get around better. Anyone who has an old boy's bike that they would lend him for a year may call DA 4-7177.

He also has been busy seeing the sights here. He recently attended a lecture at the planetarium with Gregory Harris, local astronomer; a party of fellow A.S.F. students in Culver City; and Knott's Berry Farm with the Stoeckles. He is looking forward to a trip to Disneyland this week end and to San Francisco soon.

Cub Mothers Club of Pack 761-C neared the $50 mark in proceeds from the Yippee Party held at Verburg's Rumpus Room.

Proceeds will go to help pay for the Cub Scout Christmas party, sponsored by the committee of Pack 761-C and held at Gardena Youth Center on Dec. 21.

Also, the Mother club is planning to surprise the cubs with a special Christmas Holiday treat.

Mrs. Norman Hale was in charge of arrangements for the party. Jo Jensen acted as party hostess. Mrs. John Menard and Mrs. Ed Janowski were refreshment chairmen.

The Alex Bates, of 17039 Glenburn Ave., spent a week's second honeymoon at Palm Springs recently.

Mrs. Genevieve McDonald, of 17419 Falda Ave., just went through a nerve-wracking minor eye surgery but is doing fine.

Also on the convalescent list is Martha Sherwood, of 17204 Ardath Ave., home after surgery at Hawthorne Hospital.

Emma Fagnano, of 17233 Atkinson Ave., is also home after a siege with polio.

The Norman Hales, of 16987, Elgar Ave., spent a week end "away from it all" in the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Jensen, of 16712 Falda Ave., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Hattie White and Ted and Jack Howing at Dinner. The occasion was Ted's return from duty in Alaska.

The Hugo Woerdemann's, of 16602 Falda Ave., are entertaining his mother, Mrs. Maria Woerdemann, of Cuxhaven, Germany. Since her arrival in Oct.

Class to See Holiday Meal Fixed Today

"Harvest Time Treats" will be the subject of a special cooking class at the Civic Auditorium, 1347 El Prado, this afternoon, from 1:30-3 p.m.

Mrs. Margie Ewen, home economist for the Southern California Gas Co., has prepared a delightful program filled with menu ideas according to information received from the Torrance Recreation Department, which is sponsoring the event.

The menu includes roast turkey with wild rice and bread stuffing, shish kabobs with Armenian pilaf, special pumpkin pie with crunchy coconut and pecan topping, molded harvest salad, persimmon mallow and blueberry griddle cakes.

All of these foods will be prepared at the class. Mrs. Ewen will have the stage equipped with the latest model automatic gas ranges—one with the new rotisserie broiler.

Ambulance Association Meets Here

Two Torrance area ambulance service operators were honored on their wedding anniversaries at a meeting of the Southern California Ambulance Assn., held last week at a restaurant here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lennon Agullar, owners of the South Bay Ambulance Service, were honored on their 29th wedding anniversary, while Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Henry, of Jacob's Ambulance, celebrated their 14th anniversary.

Agullar is president of the association, while Mrs. Henry is corresponding secretary. Henry is a past president of the group and now a member of the board of directors of the California Ambulance Assn.

At the monthly meeting, the ambulance firm owners discussed various phases of their business—costs and their appearance, first aid supplies, oxygen and aspirators in ambulances, the mental case and its responsibilities, the contagious case and what's necessary, and tricks of the trade.

Robert E. Heys, of 16621 Ermanita Ave., is representing his firm at the American Petroleum Industries convention being held in San Francisco's Mark Hopkins and Palace Hotels this week.

The music program in our schools was discussed at Monday's TEAC luncheon which was well attended by North Torrance residents, namely: Virginia McVran, Di Kinda, Maxine Reynolds, Roberta Ross, Jo Jensen, Dick Hubert, Claudine Blake, Helen Leichtweiss, Dorothy Stoeckle, Frances Payne, Vera Wright, and Principals Donald Duncan, Margaret Demerut, John W. Strom, and Lester Foster.

Another shower was held for Mrs. Lorraine Traynor, this time at the home of Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, 2612 W. 175th St., together with members of the Stitch and Chatter Club.

The Leland Van De Venters, of 2743 W. 176th St., entertained the N. R. Bruffys, Robert Clark, John Ferratolas, Charles Evenses, and Edward Grams at pinocle.

First prize went to N. R. Bruffy and the booby prize to Mrs. Robert Clark.

Rhea DeLange and Curtis Johnson, were honored at a birthday party held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Van De Vort, 2604 West 175th St., Co-hostesses were V. Bryant, P. Donovan, and M. Rahmeyer.

A shrimp dish followed by French pastries for dessert was served to lucky guests at a toy party held by Lois Leonard, of 2727 W. 175th St.

Guests were June Bryant, Freda Johnson, Ruth Bell, Lorraine Traynor, Gladys Young, Penny Ralsmeyer, Iris Hatterm, Rhea DeLange, Proctor, Betty Nyquist, Lois Buffington, Maxine Nichols, and Helen Hoag.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Russell Hanson, Jr., of 2619 W. 175th St.

He weighed 8 lbs., 5 ozs., and will be named Leslie Russell Hanson III.

He has two sisters, Karen, 6, and Cheryl, 8.
